Obituary

Peter D. White, 81, beloved husband, father, brother, uncle and grandfather was born on July 26, 1940 in New York City and departed this life on January 21, 2022.

God blessed us by placing Peter in our lives. He possessed a dry wit and often told mesmerizing stories that captured your attention. In Peter's younger years he was a free spirit who enjoyed working with his hands. In fact, he could fix almost any electrical component or appliance. He transformed this joy of working with his hands into a career as a machinist in the airline industry.

Peter's hobbies included a love of music, maintaining a large music catalog, driving, visiting friends from the neighborhood he grew up in as well as in his later years reading the bible.

Peter is survived by his wife: Ernestine, his siblings: Howard, Angela, his children: Vernon, Denise, Debra, his niece and nephews: Rita, Howard Jr, Gregory, Ronald his grandchildren: Jessica, Amanda, Nicholas and a multitude of other relatives and friends.

Poem

He is gone

You can shed tears that he is gone
Or you can smile because he has lived

You can close your eyes and pray that he will come back
Or you can open your eyes and see all that he has left

Your heart can be empty because you can't see him
Or you can be full of the love that you shared

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday

-David Harkins
