

LEWIS

GONE TO BE WITH CHRIST
WHICH IS FAR BETTER

Raymond James Lewis

March 16, 1940 – February 11, 2022

'Ray'

was born March 16, 1940,

in Cumberland, BC, on Vancouver Island.

He passed away February 11, 2022, at the age of 81 years, at Surrey BC. Ray was predeceased by his parents Joe Lewis and Eileen Lewis, granddaughter Lauren Lewis, and brother Charles (Doug) Lewis. Ray is survived by his loving wife Nancy, and sons Russell of Surrey BC and Michael, of Edmonton, Alberta, and brother Grant of Burnaby BC. He is also survived by his granddaughter Danika, and his grandsons Nick (Brooke), Jeff (Genieva), and Todd Lewis, and Todd's loving wife Tiara, plus 2 great granddaughters, Blakely and Kinlee Lewis.

Ray grew up in Vancouver, BC. He met Nancy when she moved to Vancouver and attended Gladstone High School. Ray and Nancy were married in Vancouver on January 6, 1961. Shortly after they married, Ray and Nancy moved to Sacramento California, where they lived for 5 years. Their sons Russ and Mike were both born in Sacramento, in 1962 and 1965 respectively. They next moved to Seattle, Washington for 4 years, before relocating to Langley, where Ray lived the rest of his life. Ray worked as a Realtor for most of his life, and spent the last 30 years selling homes for Sutton Realty in Langley. Ray worked with utmost honesty, respect and integrity. His love for God and the Faith he had in his heart guided his everyday life. Ray was highly respected and loved by all who knew him. He left us suddenly and will be missed by all who knew him.
