

In Loving Memory

Frank M. Campbell

December 20, 1938 - February 9, 2022

In loving memory of Frank M. Campbell, 83 of St. Petersburg, Florida who passed away peacefully on February 9, 2022, at the home of his son Henry and daughter Lorilin who were at his side. He was born in Somers Point, NJ on December 20, 1938.

Frank didn't have an easy childhood and went out on his own at a very young age. He married at 16 and raised his family in Brigantine and Egg Harbor Township, NJ. He was an avid, eclectic collector of books and music. He treasured a very large collection of vinyl albums spanning all genres of music. Frank worked at Lenox China for many years. He enjoyed listening to music, watching movies and sports on TV and spending time with family and his fur buddies. He liked going to the casino and playing a good game of poker with the guys. He always tried to lift people up with good advice and was always ready to lend a helping hand.

He is predeceased by his Mother June Anna Livingston Hooley and Father Maurice Campbell, his Stepfather Robert Hooley, his beloved wife Priscilla, and his beautiful daughter June Marie Poley. He is also predeceased by his first wife and the mother of his children Joan Marie Campbell. He is survived by his children Lorilin Campbell Woods, Henry, and Frank Campbell; Lynell Bagdonas who he thought of as a daughter; his grandchildren Mindy Campbell Garwood (Rick), Katelyn Marie Poley Dudley (Josh), David Poley Jr (Veronica); his great grandchildren Dominic Garwood and Laila and Jonas Dudley; his half-brother Gary Campbell, Sr.; and many other half-brother's and half-sisters, nieces, and nephews.

*My father, my angel, my rock, my friend
I know that this life isn't truly the end.
Go soar with the angels and praise our Lord
With the praising and joy you'll never get bored.
I'll see you again Dad when my time is done*
