

In Loving Memory

Jessica Bernadette Campisi
07/17/1976 - 9/13/2020

Jessica Bernadette Campisi (Jenkins) was born on July 17, 1976 in St. Louis, Illinois to late parents Jesse and Dorothy Jenkins. She entered eternal rest on Sunday, September 13, 2020 after a lengthy illness.

Among family and friends, she spent her formative years in Charleston South Carolina where she matriculated from grade school through college. She graduated from Benedict College in 1997 where she also became a dedicated member of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority. Jessica, the consummate people person, excelled at a myriad of professional positions that capitalized on her bright personality and wit.

Her real and abiding passion were her family and friends. She sought to instill in her children a zest for life, a commitment to family, and the power of a smile. Beloved wife of Kevin Campisi, devoted mother of Jazzmin Jenkins, Christen Gibson, and Kevin Campisi II she is also survived by her Grandmother, Aunts, three sisters, a host of nieces/nephews, numerous cousins as well as countless friends.

Our world is a little bit darker, but there will always be a beauty, light, and fond remembrance of a star gone too soon.

“Life is not measured by the number of breaths we take, but by the moments that take our breath away.”

Don't remember me with sadness
Don't remember me with the tears,
Remember me all the laughter,
We've shared throughout the years.
Now I am contented
That my life was worthwhile,
Knowing that I passed along the way
I made somebody smile.
When you are walking down the street
And you've got me on your mind,
I'm walking in your footsteps,
Only half a step behind.
So please don't be unhappy
Just because I'm out of sight,
Remember that I'm with you
Each Morning, noon and night.
