Frances Saucedo

October 4, 1948 - January 15, 2021

Frances Saucedo, 72, of Denver Colorado, passed away on January 15th 2021. She was born to the late Librado and Isabel Guerrero, October 4, 1948, in Santa Paula. She is survived by 5 sons, Michael, Jesse, Jaime, Robert, and Joshua. She is also survived by twelve grandkids.

Frances was an amazing mother and human being in which her kids and grandkids made up the entirety of her world. She was the type of person that if you were to casually meet her while waiting in line at a supermarket, at a diner, or even at a social event, she would brighten up the ambiance for she had a gift to strike up a conversation to those who were around her. However, she valued trustworthiness and despised falsehood. So beware, if you broke your trust with her, you definitely would get an earful and she would not be shy whatsoever about what she had to say to you. It would all start with the words, "Let me tell you something...". Her legacy will be remembered as a woman that deeply cared about her kids and would fiercely protect them from anyone that dared to say anything negative. She will always be remembered for her devotion to her faith in God and would always pray that He look after her kids and her grandkids. She loved the beauty of being outdoors and enjoying her favorite television programs like the Golden Girls, The Andy Griffith Show, Three's Company, and I Love Lucy. She will immensely be missed for her caring words, her smile, her laughter, and always making sure that her kids would continue to keep in touch with each other.

1 Thessalonians 4:16-18

For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a cry of command, with the voice of an archangel, and with the sound of the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we will always be with the Lord. Therefore encourage one another with these words.

1 Tesalonicenses 4:16-18

Sino que el Señor mismo descenderá del cielo con voz de mando, con voz de arcángel y con trompeta de Dios, y los muertos en Cristo resucitarán primero. Luego nosotros, los que aún vivamos y hayamos quedado, seremos arrebatados juntamente con ellos en las nubes, para recibir en el aire al Señor, y así estaremos con el Señor siempre. Por lo tanto, animense unos a otros con estas palabras.
