

In Loving Memory
Tessie Edner Davies

November 21, 1934 ~ December 26, 2025

TESSIE EDNER DAVIES

Tessie peacefully left this earth to go to her heavenly home on December 26th, 2025. She has left to mourn her loss, Ronald Davies, truly a devoted husband, Ruth Shannon, Edgar (Wendy) Jackson, Allan (MaryAnn) Davies, Edward Davies, Brian Davies and many nieces, nephews and friends near and far.

She was predeceased by her parents; William (Bill) and Sarah (Sadie) Jakson, brother Robert (at 2 years of age, Jim Shannon, Donna and Ted Baines and Brigitte Davies.

Tessie was born on November 4, 1934 in Kirkcaldy, Vulcan County, Alberta. While still a baby, her parents moved the family to the Marron Valley homestead in the Penticton area. In 1955, Tessie moved to Red Deer, Alberta, then to Vancouver, BC to take courses at Duffis Business Collage. At completion she moved to Kamloops in 1956. While working at Kamloops Moving and Storage, she was “wooed” and won” by Ron Davies. They married on November 4, 1967 and resided at Christina Lake for many years. When the time was right, they moved into Grand Forks, about 2013.

Tessie was loved by everyone who knew her.
